MEET YOUR HOSTS

Melissa Peil is the heart and soul behind Soul Shaman, a multidimensional healing practice dedicated to guiding others through deep transformation. With nearly 20 years of experience as a trauma-informed psychic, medium, and shaman, Melissa's mission is to help others activate their soul's truth, awaken their higher purpose, and embody a deeper sense of wholeness and freedom. She has supported countless individuals on their path of spiritually awakening, helping them reconnect with their soul's inner truth and higher purpose. She brings compassion, authenticity, and grounded spiritual insight to her work. Her work centers on inner child healing, generational trauma and ancestral pattern release where she holds a safe and sacred space for transformation where old wounds can be alchemized into wisdom and empowerment.

Lauren Searles is the vibrant founder of Solshine Wellness: a multifaceted holistic wellness business specializing in elevated on-site wellness experiences. She has dedicated 15+ years of service in the Public Health field, with a mission to connect individuals and communities more deeply with themselves, Earth, and the collective. Lauren specializes in creating safe, sacred spaces for individuals to connect to the healing and transformation they need (through modalities such as Reiki energy healing, Yoga, sound healing, womb/yoni rituals, & sacred ceremonies). Lauren focuses on empowering women to give permission to their own unique healing processes in their journey of activation + expansion. Lauren has facilitated healing retreats for women in magical places around the world such as Sedona, the Riviera Maya, and Costa Rica.
